Welcome to the start of a new year. I am excited and honored to be your new President. I would like to welcome your new Board of Directors:

Jim Dehne, First Vice President
Jeff Look, Second Vice President
Jen Baker, Third Vice President
James Acosta, Treasurer
Sam Sullivan, Sergeant-at-Arms
Cindy Drake, Secretary
Frank Cassidy, Past President

As I begin my fourth time as a member of the Board of Directors, I know the commitment these members have made and will strive to keep our meetings productive and keep F.A.C.E. on track with their help and your support. As with all new years it will have its challenges. As we continue to see effects of the economy, we will look to remain fiscally responsible and mindful of impacts to our membership. I have a great Board to work with and I know we will meet all challenges head on, achieving positive results for the membership. All of the committees have a full plate again this year, so I look forward to their progress. I will get the Board meeting schedule posted on the website soon so those who are interested may attend.

Please see my follow up article about the annual education and training seminar. I think the evaluations will show a great event and give us information to make next year's event even better. Many thanks to all involved.

I would like to take a moment to congratulate Janet Csomos, from the City of Lakeland, this year's winner of the Joseph V Huskey Award. Mr. Huskey founded The Florida Association of Code Enforcement (F.A.C.E.) in 1989. He was the Association's first President, during 1990/1991, and envisioned an organization that would promote and advance the profession and practice of Code Enforcement in Florida. The following year the Joseph V. Huskey Award was established to recognize a code enforcement officer who exceeded what was expected of them. One who went beyond their normal job duties and by doing so helped to continue the advancement of our profession. Janet is truly deserving of this award.

One of our new and exciting program upgrades is the new Annual Single Fee for our membership. Effective this October, Active Members will pay $35.00 and Associate Members will pay $25.00 for their annual membership fee. The $15.00 recertification fee has been eliminated. This should end confusion about what fee is due when. Our partners at the UCF/IOG have a new registration website. You are now able to pay the new fee (not due until October 1, 2011, unless reinstating or joining for the first time) online (Ctrl + Click here: bit.ly/FACE_2011-12). You will be able to request an invoice so you can send in a check, or you will now have the option to pay with a credit or purchase card. We think this will be a great asset for our membership. We do need your help to spread the word. This is new, so make sure you share this information with your fellow officers and talk it up at chapter meetings so we get the word out to everyone. The one thing this new fee does not change is your responsibility to complete and report your Continuing Education Hours (CEH), 16 hours every two years, to maintain your certification(s).

Shawn O'Rourke said it best during his briefing in Orlando last month, "Your name is on your certification documents; don't risk your certification to anyone but yourself. You must take responsibility for your own certification."

The next big issue I'm excited about is our pending contract with Florida Strategic Group, LLC for Lobbying services. This will put us back in the game in Tallahassee and continue the efforts of F.A.C.E. to be known and heard. I would like to thank Deborah Leigh, our past Sgt-at-Arms, for getting us to a point where we had valid proposals to evaluate and accept. Look for more information on this in the future.

In closing, I would like to say that I am committed to maintaining a professional F.A.C.E. organization and will remember the importance of each individual member. Please feel free to contact me with any issue involving our organization. Together we will remain strong while we advance the education and science of code enforcement in the State of Florida.

NEWS FROM THE BOARD
1ST VICE PRESIDENT
Jim Dehne

Hello. It was nice to see so many friends I haven't seen in quite some time and meet some new ones at our Annual Education and Training Seminar in Orlando. This year's conference was one of the most educational I have ever attended. Thanks to Mark and his committee. The site was once again wonderful and from the comments I heard was a success. I would like to thank the membership for its confidence in me to continue to serve you for the next 3 years. I would like to welcome the new board members as we move forward to do what is best for our membership. We would like to invite all of you to attend a board meeting and get involved with a committee. With that said, this year I have selected a committee from across the state so that you will be well represented.

The FACE Program Committee Members for 2011-2012 are:

Joe Fenton – Manatee County

Monica Anderson – City of Oviedo

Ken Jackson – Palm Beach County

Leslie Banta – St. Johns County

John Stachowski – City of Cape Coral

Jorean Washington – Orange County

I look forward to working with these dedicated members planning our conference in Palm Beach Gardens next year. I'm sure we will come up with some great classes taught by professionals.

This is our association and our conference so, please contact me or any of the committee members if you have a topic or instructor that you are interested in for next year. Our first meeting will be August 19th and I hope we can at least get a list of possible topics by the end of the day. Again, thank you for the privilege to serve and please contact any of us with your suggestions. Please be safe and learn!

2ND VICE PRESIDENT
Jeff Look

Let me start by saying thank you for the opportunity to serve you, the members of F.A.C.E. Being the Second Vice President I am tasked with the oversight of the Education & Certification committee. This committee has been asked to accomplish two chores this year. First is the completion of the re-write of the course Administrative Aspects of Code Enforcement (Level II). This course needed to be updated with current practices. Second is the review of Officer Safety and Field Applications (Level IV). Our ultimate goal is to try and increase the attendance and pass rate for this course.

I had the pleasure of serving on this committee last year under the guidance of Jim Dehne and hope to do at least as good a job as he did. To accomplish this I will need some help. I ask that anyone interested in serving on the Education & Certification committee this year please contact me at lookjs@cityofgainesville.org. Without help from the membership the job will be difficult. Again, thank you and if there is anything I can do to assist any of the members please don't hesitate to contact me.

3RD VICE PRESIDENT

Jen Baker

First off, I want to thank everyone for the opportunity to serve on the F.A.C.E Board. Over the next year we will be faced with many challenges in the economy which will also pose many challenges on gaining new membership and retaining the membership that we already have. Through efforts of my committee, we will be looking for new and creative methods to obtain membership and give more incentive to keeping the membership that we already have. If you are interested in becoming a team member on the membership committee and have the ambition to work hard for our organization, please contact me at jenniferbaker@colliergov.net. I look forward to working with all of you over the next year!

TREASURER

James Acosta

It was a pleasure to see those of you who attended the Seminar in Orlando last month. Those of you who were not able to make it for one reason or another, you missed yet another great event. Thank you for your vote of confidence in me to remain as your Treasurer for another year. I will serve you well.

During the opening business meeting, I presented the current budget status and the upcoming budget for 2011-2012. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me. At the business meeting, continuation on Friday the 2011-2012 budget was approved.

The financial status of F.A.C.E. to date is very good. Our account totals as of 05-31-11 are:
Operating (Fund) Account (Checking) - $125,154.78; Scholarship account (Savings) - $9,763.12;
Reserve Account (Savings) - $5,241.05.

You can visit the F.A.C.E. website and view the Organizations Annual Budget and any questions or helpful suggestions may be sent to me via my e-mail.

A check register is a tool for keeping track of the daily balance in your checking account. When you have a checking account, it is VERY important that you keep track of how much money is in your account. You NEVER want to write a check for more money than you have available in your account.

You should use your check register to record ALL account transactions such as deposits, fees, checks, and ATM or check card withdrawals. This way you will know how much money is in your account at all times.

At the end of each month, you will receive an account statement from your financial institution. Your account statement is a record of your account activity over a specific period. The following basic items should be on any statement:

1. A customer service number is always listed in case you have any questions about your statement. Do not hesitate to call and ask questions related to your account – that is what customer service people are there for.
2. The period covered by the statement.
3. Your account number
4. The amount of money in your account at the beginning of the period.
5. The amount of money that you deposited into your account during the period.
6. The amount of money that was withdrawn from your account during the period.
7. The amount of money in your account at the end of the account period. This will be the beginning balance for the next period.

8. Every withdrawal from your account is listed for the period. A check number will identify each check. An asterisk * is used to identify a break in the check sequence. This may mean that the recipient did not cash the check during the account statement period.
9. All deposits into your account are listed. Automatic deposits, ATM deposits, and interest are all included.

Once a check has been processed and subtracted from the account on which it was written, it is called a cancelled check. Depending on your account, you may receive your cancelled checks with your account statement. If your financial institution returns your cancelled checks, then keep them with your account statement. They can be used to build a nontraditional credit history or as verification of payment. If your financial institution does not return your cancelled checks, you can request them as needed. Some financial institutions will charge you a small fee to return a cancelled check.

To balance your checkbook you compare the personal records you have kept in your check register to your account statement. It is called reconciling your checkbook with your account statement. After all financial transactions have been recorded in both places; the balance should be the same.

Balance your checkbook each month to ensure that you know where and how you spent your money. You can use the form on the back of your account statement (if provided). One of the most overlooked "withdrawals" is a bank service charge or other automatic withdrawals. Make sure you record all transactions in your check register. Neglecting to balance your checkbook can result in bounced checks and inaccurate balances.

If you are having trouble balancing your checkbook:

- Compare the dollar amount of the cancelled checks listed on your statement with your check register.
- Compare the dollar amount of the deposits listed on your statement with your check register. If they are not the same, check your deposit receipts.
- Make sure that you subtracted all bank service charges and fees from your check register.
- Be sure you recorded all cash machine (ATM) and other transactions (e.g., debit card, deposits) in your check register.
- If you have an interest-earning account, be sure that you added the interest you were paid by the financial institution.
- Check all additions and subtractions in your check register.

If you cannot figure out the problem, call your financial institution.

SECRETARY

Cindy Drake

Wow! What a great seminar! I had a great time. All of your support overwhelmed me in my quest to become your next Secretary.

This is a great Association. I look forward to working with the new Board of Directors over the next year. It is my goal to work hard for F. A. C. E. as both a member of the Board and a member of the association.

I just finished reviewing the box of materials passed on to me from the past secretary. Mark Caskie, our incoming President, has assigned me the task of scanning all of the old records on to an external hard drive.

If anyone has any ideas, thoughts, or suggestions, please feel free to contact me at 561-753-2527 or via e-mail at cdrake@wellingtonfl.gov. Again, I want to thank all of you for your support! Keep up the great work and stay safe.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS

Sam Sullivan

Let me thank the membership for entrusting me to serve as the Sergeant-at-Arms for the next year. I will work very hard this coming year to merit that trust.

I would also like to thank all the wonderful members who expressed a desire to serve on the Legislative and Judiciary committee. With so many talented and qualified colleagues applying, selecting a committee was no easy feat. Let me introduce you this year's committee: Sandra Caslow (Lake City), April Hartseil (Highlands County), Debbi Leigh (Seminole County Sheriff's Office), Jim Orioles (Oviedo), and Danny Thompson (Lakeland). Together we will work diligently to fulfill all our tasks.

This is going to be a busy year for the committee and we've already been assigned duties at the first Board meeting.

We will continue the year's long goal of State Recognition. The Board has made the first steps towards hiring a lobbying firm to represent us. We will work towards finalizing that with Bob Hamilton and the Board's help, and then we will develop a legislative program with our lobbyist to obtain our long-term goal.

In addition, we will be looking at various by-law changes and updates including officer term limits and the formalization of the historian position.

I would like to invite all members to feel free to contact me on any matter in which the committee can assist. My door is always open, so, please, e-mail me at sergeantaa@face-online.org.

PAST PRESIDENT

Frank Cassidy

I know all on the Board will repeat this, but the conference was great this year! Good job Mark Caskie and his committee.

Welcome aboard to our new Board members; I look forward to serving with you.

I assume a new role this year as your Past President. So I will say first and foremost "thank you" for the opportunity and the privilege to serve as your President.

Second, one of my tasks for this year is to provide a slate of candidates for office. Now I know we have a year to put this together, but given the challenges ahead I am trying to get an early start. I ask you all to consider the opportunity to serve as a Board member. If you have questions or need information to help you consider this commitment, please do not hesitate to contact me.

We continue to work hard at making FACE work for you the members. If you have questions, let me know and I will do my best to provide the answers.

Other than that, have a great summer; be safe and keep training!

SEMINAR WRAP-UP

2011 Florida Association of Code Enforcement Education and Training Seminar

With the Annual Education and Training Seminar behind us, I think Success is a word I would use to describe it. With 294 members registered prior to the start, I was thrilled and could not have predicted such a large turnout. We exceeded last year's numbers and that was my biggest surprise.

I have not seen the results from the evaluations, but based on what I heard during the event, I think that most had a good time and enjoyed the informative sessions. Thanks to all the speakers who came in and provided a great learning environment.

There are many to thank, so I'll start with my great committee: Mark O'Connor, Pamela Taylor, Don Corder, John Stachowski, and Tonya Long. It was a great year of planning that started with a good brainstorming session, which led us to our theme and coursework. It was a learning process that I enjoyed being a part of. In addition, we can't forget the IOG staff working behind the scenes: Marilyn, Michelle, Susan, Jennifer, and Laura; they were not only a help to me, but assisted many of you with questions and helped get you through the registration process.

F.A.C.E. Awarded 31 Scholarships this year to cover the cost of the Seminar registration fee. We know this will continue to be a popular way to fund attendance so look for information next year to apply if you have a need.

Our event this year was brought to you in part from donations from our friends both locally and nationally. Here is a list of sponsors and vendors: Look for their ads and be sure to thank them for their support as you have the opportunity to work with their products or services.

DOOR PRIZES
Too many to list, but thanks to all who donated door prizes.

Let me be the first to invite you to look for information on next year's event. Mark your calendar for June 19-22, 2012 at the PGA National Resort and Spa in Palm Beach Gardens. Jim Dehne and his committee will be getting you more information soon. See you there next year!

Last year we recycled enough paper to save over 41 million trees.

Find out more at ThinkGreen.com

One leaf = One million trees

Now, what can we help you recycle? With thousands of commercial and community recycling programs nationwide, the results are truly adding up – both from an environmental and an economic standpoint. But there is more work to be done. By 2020, we look to double the amount of material that we recycle. Won't you join us?

SINGLE FEE PROGRAM NOW IN EFFECT!

The new Single Fee Program is now in effect. You will now pay your Annual Fee through UCF online (no more paper forms, no more checks to F.A.C. E!)

You may pay online with a credit card (VISA, MasterCard, or Discover), or you may request an invoice and send a check or money order when received.

Visit bit.ly/FACE_2011-12 to join or renew your status with F. A. C. E. Those with current memberships are required to renew on October 1, 2011. A late fee of $20.00 will be assessed after December 31st.

For those recertifying January 1, 2012 and beyond, you will no longer pay recertification fees. These are included in the Annual Fee. You are still required to remit your proof of attendance of 16 hours of continuing education on time.

Non-members will pay a significantly higher fee for classes, seminars, and especially recertification.

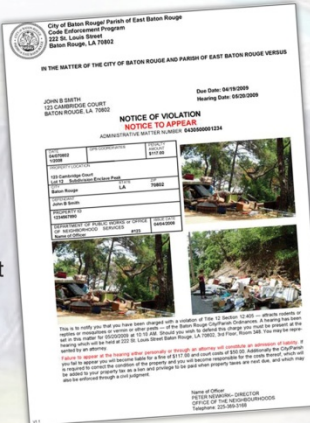

Brochures with detailed information were available at the Education & Training Seminar in June. A pdf file of this brochure has been sent as an attachment to this newsletter.

NEWS FROM THE CHAPTERS

This section of the INTERFACE is dedicated to the local chapters within the Florida Association of Code Enforcement. Jen Baker, 3rd Vice President, extends an invitation to each chapter president to contact her with any chapter news.

Code Enforcement Officer Association of Palm Beach County (CEOAPBC) Congratulations to all newly elected and re-elected Board Members! This year's seminar was very successful and informative. The topics were issues we've all be dealing with lately. We look forward to next year's seminar, which will be held in Palm Beach County. On another note, the CEOA of Palm Beach County holds bi-monthly luncheon meetings (at a nominal cost to attendees) and bi-monthly training (no cost to attendees) which are usually approved for F. A. C. E. credits. All are welcome to attend these meetings/trainings. Our next scheduled meeting is July 19th at 11:30 a.m., Duffy's 11588 US Highway 1, North Palm Beach (PGA & US 1). Our Guest speaker is Earl Mallory, PBC Special Magistrate, topic of discussion is "Process & Expectations of the Special Magistrate", including discussion of F.S. Chapter 162. The next training session will be in August (date & time to be announced) and will take place at 2300 Jog Road, West Palm Beach. Contact Ken Jackson at kjackson@pbcgov.org or (561) 233-5541 for further details.

Northeast Association of Code Enforcement (NEACE) Northeast Association of Code Enforcement (NEACE) - Our chapter meets every other month right now due to budget cuts and jurisdictions unable to travel every month. We have pre-approved trainings at all meetings, whenever possible, to help ensure no one loses certification due to a lack of enough CEH's. We now have 3 NEACE members on the FACE board which keeps us in the loop with all of the up-to-date information with F.A.C.E. and the Institute of Government. For membership information or upcoming meetings contact Leslie Banta at 209-0704 or lbanta@sicfl.us

Tampa Bay Association of Code Enforcement (TBACE) Hello from Tampa Bay Association of Code Enforcement. We are doing well and membership is increasing. The training has been great. In fact, we are booked through the end of 2011 for sites and training sessions, thanks to the hard work of our Vice President, Shelby Schaar, City of Clearwater, and many of our members. Anyone interested in joining (the dues are still, at this point, only $10.00 a year), please contact our treasurer, Roberta Bowmer, who works for the City of Tampa. Her e-mail address is: roberta.bowmer@tampagov.net Have a great summer and be safe!

Gold Coast Association of Code Enforcement (GCACE) Our organization meets monthly in different cities in Broward and Dade County. We are over 250 strong, and growing. We welcome our newcomers and associate members. We have great speakers and earn our CEH's required to keep up our certification. Even through the rough economy, we come together in expectation of what our world in code will bring next and how we face it together. The networking with each other and sharing of information is vital to our jobs. For more information, contact Pat Uber, President Gold Coast Association. (954)344-5955 puber@coralsprings.org

CEH and Certification information, Forum, and other Info

Where did the Member's Only section go on the F.A.C.E. Website? It is still there, it just moved a little. Look at the website www.face-online.org. In the upper right corner on all pages there are 6 links. The one labeled LOGIN will get you to your certification information and Member's Only area. Please try these links and visit often. Calls to the UCF/IOG office can be avoided by checking your info here first.
