

City of Lauderhill
Proclamation

WHEREAS, Mr. Walter Morris has served the City of Lauderhill with distinction and commitment through his role in the Code Enforcement Division since 2019; and

WHEREAS, prior to joining the City, Mr. Morris dedicated 30 years of his career to the electronics industry, specializing in sales and management and traveling extensively throughout Central and South America and the Caribbean; and

WHEREAS, following his retirement from his first career, Mr. Morris pursued further education in Code Enforcement, inspired by the recommendation of a colleague, reflecting his dedication to lifelong learning and public service; and

WHEREAS, beyond his professional life, Mr. Morris has long served his community as a volunteer being elected twice as the president of his condominium and giving over 20 years of service to the City of Fort Lauderdale's Parks & Recreation Department; and

WHEREAS, his diverse background, compassionate nature, and commitment to public education have made him a respected figure in the community who strives to help residents understand city rules and regulations, while treating each individual with dignity and respect; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Morris's thoughtful approach to problem resolution has made him a trusted resource and valued liaison between city government and the residents it serves; and

WHEREAS, his unwavering commitment and personal pride in his work have had a meaningful impact on both residents and colleagues alike, contributing to a safer and more unified Lauderhill; and

WHEREAS, one such resident, Dr. Gwendolyn Denton, returned to personally thank and recognize Mr. Morris for his kindness, compassion, and outstanding service. In gratitude, she presented a special plaque honoring his compassion, which will be presented alongside this proclamation; and

WHEREAS, this Proclamation has been requested by Commissioner John T. Hodgson; and

NOW THEREFORE, I, John T. Hodgson, Commissioner of the City of Lauderhill, along with the Mayor Denise D. Grant, Vice Mayor Sarai Martin, Commissioners: Richard Campbell and Melissa P. Dunn, do hereby proclaim June 30TH, 2025 as:

and recognize and commend Mr. Walter Morris for his exemplary public service, compassion, and professionalism, and extend our deepest gratitude for his continued contributions to the City of Lauderhill.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I HAVE HEREUNTO SET MY HAND AND CAUSED THE OFFICIAL SEAL OF THE CITY OF LAUDERHILL, FLORIDA, TO BE AFFIXED THIS 30TH DAY OF JUNE, 2025.
